

NEW FACE IN RACE — Marshall Kachmar will make his first attempt at obtaining a Town Council seat in the October 20 general election.

Buck, Kachmar in election race

Hats continue to be thrown into the election ring, with nomination day just five days hence.

The latest to announce their candidacy in the October 20 general election are incumbent mayor Ed Buck and oil company Field Foreman Marshall Kachmar. Buck joins Byron Mann in the mayoralty contest while Kachmar will be running for Council.

Buck made his decision to run for a second term late last week. Looking back over the last three years, he found that Council had accomplished much and "made some very good decisions". Buck hopes to continue on with more of the same and "provide continuity to the community".

The present Council has "very good rapport", Buck says, and this has been responsible for many of its accomplishments.

In addition to the present term as Mayor, Buck was a member of Council for 2½ years of the previous term, plus one and a half terms some years ago. He has also been active in many community organizations, and declares he is "dedicated to the community as a whole".

Buck and his wife Marie have three children.

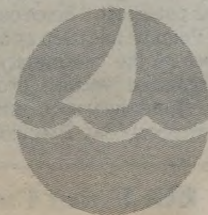

Kachmar also announced his intentions of running for municipal office last week. "After serious consideration given to the requests of town citizens, I decided I would seek the position of Councillor in the upcoming October

Minister addresses hospital conference

Hospital administrators, staff members and auxiliary members from throughout northeast Alberta gathered in Elk Point last Friday for the North East Regional Conference of the Alberta Hospital Association.

Keynote speaker was Marvin Moore, Minister of Hospitals and Medical Care. This was Moore's first speaking engagement in his new portfolio.

Moore praised the government's "ambitious program," launched eight years ago and aimed at rebuilding and upgrading hospitals throughout the province which has yielded the new hospitals now open in Two Hills and Bonnyville, as well as those soon to be completed in St. Paul, Cold Lake, Tofield and Lloydminster. He said that many more improvements for medical facilities "are still in the design stage".

The new Minister wants to find a way to contain increased medical spending in Alberta to a percentage which would reflect the province's inflation figures. At the present time, Alberta is spending close to $1100 per capita on medical care, which is "by far the highest in Canada". Almost 25 percent of the province's $10.6 billion budget goes for health care. Moore would like to "spend the taxpayer's money a little better every year," in order not to leave "a legacy of debt".

Moore feels there has been "very little progress" in the care of Alberta's elderly over the last twenty years, with the province just following the North American trend to build nursing homes. "These people need all sorts of help, but not institutions," he stated. "It is a real challenge to do more and better things for the seniors, and one of my priorities is to do just that."

In closing, Moore recognized the dedication, sacrifice and challenges faced by those who serve on boards. He asked the board members to seriously consider running for another term to provide continuity to their boards. As an example, he pointed out Elk Point's Board Chairman Tom Belsheim, who has served on the board for forty-one years.

20th election. I believe that Elk Point is a great town and has potential for a great future."

Kachmar and his wife June have been residents of Elk Point for nearly 3 years. Married 25 years, they have 4 children: Denise, a registered nurse at Two Hills Municipal Hospital; Darlene, who is employed by Phil's Hardware; Michael and Jolene attending Senior and Junior High in Elk Point. The Kachmar's were "very pleased to be transferred to Elk Point as they both grew up in nearby communities."

Employed by Amoco Canada, Kachmar has, since joining the company in 1971, worked at various levels of responsibility and is presently a Senior Field Foreman at the heavy oil project south of Elk Point. "My 15 years experience in planning, cost controls, budget reviews and project supervision would be an asset to the town."

Kachmar feels that "A community is as good as what the citizens put into it." Since coming to Elk Point he has been an active member of the community and has organized various projects and functions very successfully.

He presently is: President of the Elk Point Oilmen's Association, which was formed 3 years ago; President of the Bonnyville and District Church Council; Secretary of the Elk Point Ukrainian Orthodox Church; on the executive of the Elk Point Lions Club and the Elk Point Golf and Country Club; a member of the Elk Point Legion and of the St. Paul Cultural Society Choir and is involved with the Ukrainian Youth Camp at Moose Lake.

"If elected", he states "some readjustments to this schedule would have to be made."

Kachmar gives credit to previous members of the Town Council for maintaining its strong financial position, and says the town of Elk Point can serve as a model to other Alberta towns of similar size. "My experience with one of the more successful major corporations in the industry will be helpful in being an effective councillor."

Planning for future needs in utilities, downtown parking, streets and recreation are high on Kachmar's list of priorities for the new Town Council. He also feels that a good working relationship with various levels of government, the corporate sector, businesses, the County and the ratepayers is very important.

Successful year for Bears

The U.F.A. Golden Bears fastball club wish to thank all the organizations who contributed to their first season of operation. First, Vogel's U.F.A. in Elk Point for helping purchase new uniforms. Thanks also to the Elk Point Elks Lodge and Pan Canadian for their cash donation.

The Golden Bears are a midget boys' fastball team (under 18 years as of January 1) playing in the North Eastern Alberta Midget Fastball League. Other teams in the league are Marwayne, Rusylvia, Vermilion, McLaughlin, Kitscoty, and Marshall Sask.

The team played 25 games in May, June and July taking in three tournaments, the last one being in the Provincial "C" playoffs in Didsbury. The boys managed a silver medal by defeating Spruce View but losing to the host team Westcott.

A special thankyou to the Heinsburg Ball Park for allowing the team to play their home games at Whitney Lake.

Hospitals Minister

During the question period which followed, Moore declared he "couldn't be more pleased" with the new legislation which will ban extra billing by Alberta physicians after October 1. The legislation will be outlined in a brochure being mailed to each household in the next few days. Hospital user fees are also being discontinued, with the province making up for the difference this will make in each hospital's budget.

Moore remained non-committal on his feelings regarding mandatory seat belts: "No one ever found out how I'd vote on that" (during Moore's four years in the Transportation portfolio). He did say, however, that there will be a debate and decision before next spring. Moore urged those present to "pressure your MLAs to act on this".

Plans for firm, better defined ambulance standards are also in the offing, Moore told another questioner. He suggested the use of "first response teams" in communities without their own ambulance service.

Moore made an early departure from the conference, hurrying away to catch a plane to Medicine Hat to officiate at the opening of a new hospital.

A full day of meetings followed, along with tours of the Elk Point Municipal Hospital and the Heritage Lodge.

Elk Point school enrollment steady

Enrollment at schools in Elk Point and Heinsburg is holding steady near the figures for the 1985-86 term.

Elk Point Elementary has 277 students, which is "up a few" from 1985-86, according to school secretary Marlyne Kryvenchuk. Across the street, F.G. Miller High School has an even 300 students at present, up 6 from last June, says Principal Bob Tredger.

Heinsburg, in spite of boarded-up windows and a state of confusion due to ongoing construction, has "around 200 students - about the same as last year," stated Marie Zayac, secretary at the school.

All three schools have additions to their staffs.

Elk Point Elementary has two new teachers: Lee Ann Laboucane, a recent University of Alberta graduate who is teaching Grade 1, and Charlotte Anderson, who interned at the school last year.

F.G. Miller also has two new teachers, plus an intern teacher. Mike O'Neill, who formerly taught at Mallaig, is teaching Junior High Social Studies and Option. Holly Burton, a recent graduate of the U of A, joined the staff last June to teach Business Education. The intern teacher is Randall Kryns.

Heinsburg has a new ECS/Special Ed. teacher, Shernee Naidoo, who formerly taught at Lamont. Their intern teacher is Zenovia Lazariuk.

Off to the races

At first glance, the Canadian Rural Transition Program looks like every farm family's nightmare: to be uprooted from their country soil, no matter how rocky, and plunked down in the concrete jungle of the city.

The announcement probably did not meet with great rejoicing from the city people, who feel that there is enough competition for jobs already, either.

However, when you look more closely at the program, it appears to be much less threatening and much more helpful.

It is for those who have, for financial reasons, had no choice but to leave farming, and who have no permanent full-time employment to turn to. It will provide financial assistance for those people to move to other accommodation, and to cover the cost of living while seeking employment or waiting to start training. It does not say that you have to move to the city, or even that you have to live in town.

The program will pay fees for job related training courses for the former farm family members, and if necessary, a living allowance while this training takes place. It will, in some cases, provide assistance for those who must travel or relocate in order to find a job or obtain training.

A grant is also available to those who wish to start a new, non-farm business. Job, career and personal counselling is also available.

The program will also give employers incentive to hire farm family members, in the form of a wage subsidy.

Nobody - well, almost nobody - actually wants to trade their rural existence for the urban job market. But sometimes, you don't have a choice.

This program could make the life-wrenching departure from the farm just a little bit easier.

Some good points

Nomination Day is next Monday, September 22, and already five candidates are at the gate, eager for the race to begin.

Byron Mann has been working the longest, only this week joined by incumbent Ed Buck in the contest for the Mayor's chair. Allan Frankiw, Sandy Giffin and Marshall Kachmar are poised for takeoff down the campaign trail toward the six Council seats.

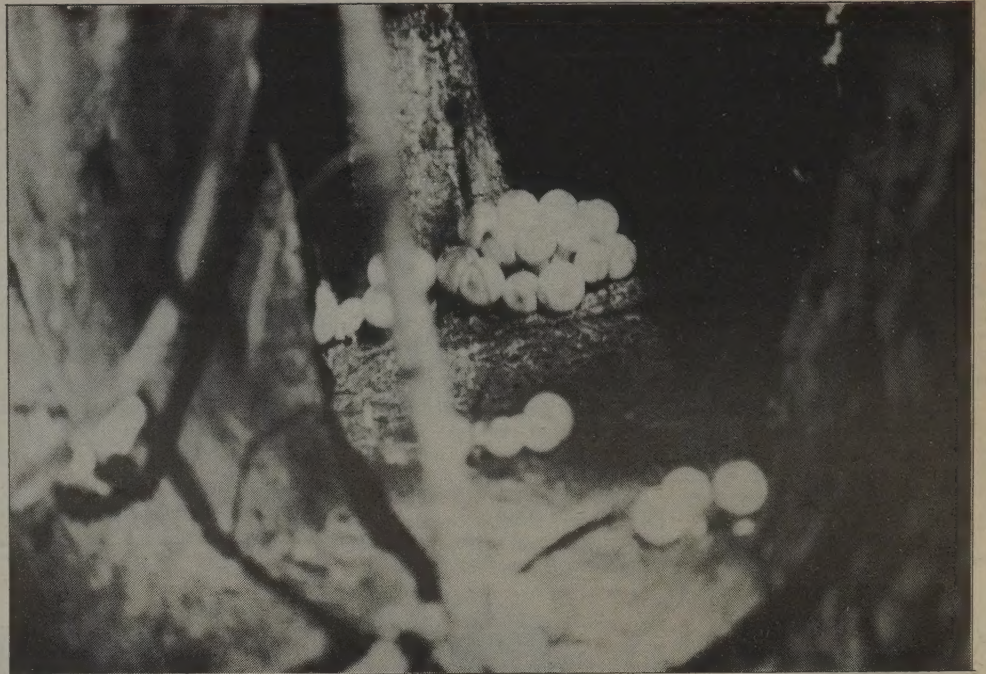

The rest of the present Council, School and Hospital Board members have not yet indicated their intentions, election-wise, and there may be a number of "dark horses" who wish to surprise everyone when nomination day rolls around.

Another potentially exciting race will take place in the County of St. Paul, at the same time.

It will be very interesting to watch those in their maiden race competing against those who have taken part in one, several or many previous elections.

A good, clean race to all who decide to take part!

A SHAFT OF SUNLIGHT — Pierces the darkness of the woods, to highlight clusters of snowy white puffballs around a dying willow clump.

Alberta Trails

Year of the fungi

By Irene Magnusson

This rainy July has brought to the surface more fungi than I ever new existed in this part of the world. Now, in September, they have withered to little brown dried up crisps, looking like thick leaves of autumn, or they continue to hold their shape, little round balls, giving off a cloud of dust when you walk on them.

These small puffball types have reproduced in unbelievable numbers. I see tiny ones along the side of the porch in the grass, about the size of marbles. Over at the edge of the garden are a number of larger ones, these are the kind that can get to weigh 10 pounds or so, and they are edible - but not by me. These must be a favorite of the mice. These must be for a mouse or even a squirrel to pack away, they have sat in and had a lunch out of a side, leaving tiny toothmarks.

Over in the woods which was once the schoolyard were scattered the orangy amanita muscaria, complete with white spots, our most deadly toadstool. These have since decayed to a state where they give off a most unpalatable odor, often noticed in the blueberry patch. For some reason as yet undetermined, there were no blueberries in this area this year, so they are stinking up the woods alone.

Out beyond the raspberry patch are a couple of large fallen poplars, among those giants still standing. From the stumps protrude flat brown wrinkled half-pies, scalloped and edged in white. Long grass spears through the fungus, and a wild gooseberry bush shows leaves above and leaves below, as it grows through the inch and a half thick parasite. Did it grow through it - or did the fungus surround it? Yesterday when I walked by, I saw the brown spores have dusted all the vegetation around it with a rusty coating to about three feet in diameter. This fungus will dry out and remain perhaps for years.

I was drawn to return to the swamp woods, where I saw the mounds of pearly white golfball-size puffballs earlier. Nestled around the base of a dying clump of willows, they had startled me with their numbers and beauty, when I came upon them a few weeks ago, highlighted by a shaft of sunlight there in the dark naked forest.

The pearly white had faded to dusky grey, and when I touched the little balls they were papery and thin, with the hole in the top still emitting a puff of spore dust when pressed. Wandering on, I found the giant fairy-ring, which had been a path of fungus six to eight inches wide and about twelve feet in circumference, circling among the smallish poplars and spruce near the edge of the swamp forest. Now the tops were wrinkled and dry, and appeared much less thickly placed. Squirrels had been harvesting for the coming winter.

At the back of the barn, where the tall inky caps had gleamed white and shiny, were only little patches of black 'ink', where the toadstools, true to their name, had disintegrated into the tall drying grass. Truly, the workings of nature are wonderful to behold.

Dewberry News Roundup

By Cliff Cunningham
Dewberry Correspondent

First in my news this week Marge and I want to thank Shirley Osinchuk for the nice write-up and pictures in the Lakeland Review, also Vicki Brooker (Managing Editor) for coming to our party, also the nice gift from the Lakeland Review. We wish everyone that came the very best of luck, including Mildred Dunham, the Ferguson Flats - Lindberg news reporter.

There were people at our party on August 30th from Grande Centre, Clandonald, Mannville, Fort Saskatchewan, Edmonton, Vermilion, Peace River, La Glace, Sherwood Park, Landonville, Greenlawn, Elk Point, Spruce Grove, Winterburn, St. Paul, Chailey and Dewberry. We got 90 birthday and anniversary cards and some gifts.

Our Dewberry and Islay United Church minister Ted Norris and family are back from a month's holiday in Alaska.

Kevin and Barbara Nelson's wedding supper and dance was held in the Dewberry Hall, September 6th with a large crowd attending to wish them many years of happy married life. The Midnight Affair Orchestra supplied the music for the dance. The next day was gift opening and lunch at the Dewberry Hall which took most of the afternoon. I never found out how many were at the dance and supper or how many gifts they got.

The last report we got about Lyle Mawhinney is that he is still in the University Hospital, Edmonton, Station 5 and not feeling very good. We all wish you a speedy recovery Lyle.

School started in Dewberry August 28th. I beg all of you car and truck drivers to watch out for children going to and from school. This is for motorbikes too.

The steel frame work for the new Co-op store is up and they are putting on the outside sheeting now on the walls. By the time you read this last news, the roof should be on.

If anyone is interested in old time dancing once a month this fall and winter, let me know. Everyone I have spoke to so far is all for it. It will take in all the districts south, north, east and west of Dewberry or anyone further away would be welcomed to join us.

We need more help to finish our hall. The Dewberry Lion's Club are in charge of all hall improvements.

Old Jack Frost has been around these last three nights and some of the gardens are changing color from green to brown from Sept. 6th to Sept. 8th. Otherwise our weather has been good for the farmers and a lot of swathing and combining has been done.

BUGS BUNNY, EAT YOUR HEART OUT — Troy Poitras displays a 14½" carrot, the pride of his family's bumper carrot crop.

Bazians celebrate 50th anniversary

The 50th wedding anniversary of Russell and Bertha Bazian was celebrated by family and friends on the weekend of August 2 and 3, 1986. A supper and dance was held on August 2 at the Heinsburg Community Hall with an open house the next day at Russell and Bertha's home. The five children and their families were all present: William and Venetta (Nicole, Kelsey and Alesha) of Warspite, Alberta; Ross and Heather (Sandra and Tammy) of Sherwood Park, Alberta; Richard and Joyce (Leah, Michael, Jennifer and Russell) of Okotoks, Alberta; Larry of Heinsburg; Sharon and Don Chester (Kyle) of Edmonton, Alberta. Present at the supper and dance were the bride and groom's attendants: Julia (Michaelchuk) Kliachik of Chipman, cousin of Bertha; and Mike Holowaychuk of Lindberg, brother of Bertha. A large number of relatives, friends and neighbors gathered with the family to congratulate Russell and Bertha. Three brothers and four sisters of Russell were present: Dan & Wilma Bazian, Edmonton; Walter Bazian, Elk Point; Gerald and Vicki Bazian, St. Albert; Annie Skolarchuk, Lindbergh; Olga & Alex Miller, Edmonton; Zelma & Bill Fairley, Vancouver; Helen & Vic Dragish, Edmonton. Bertha's sister, Mary & Harry Shipka of Edmonton also attended.

Helen Dragish, sister of Russell, served graciously as mistress of ceremonies. Roses were presented to Russell and Bertha, one at a time, by each of their ten grandchildren while the eldest grandchild, Sandra, gave a moving tribute to her Baba and Gido on behalf of all the grandchildren; granddaughter, Nicole said the Grace; grandson, Michael proposed the toast to the bride and groom.

Helen Dragish then introduced the head table; gave a brief talk on her association with Russell and Bertha over the years, then read a brief history from when Russell and Bertha met-up through the 50 years of their married life. She then introduced out of town guests and noted the congratulatory notes sent to the couple from the various government offices. Bob Smith, Councillor, presented the couple with a plaque on behalf of the County of St. Paul. Morris Kuziw, cousin of Russell, spoke briefly. Daughter-in-law, Venetta Bazian then spoke on behalf of Russell & Bertha's daughters-in-law and son-in-law. Son, William Bazian gave a tribute to his parents on behalf of the five children; and Joe Michaelchuk, cousin of Bertha, spoke briefly and then Jean Penarowsky joined him along with all the guests to sing "Mnahaia Leeta" in Ukrainian and "For They're A Jolly Good Fellow". The evening continued with a dance and lunch and further reminiscing with relatives and friends. Russell and Bertha wish to thank all their relatives and friends for sharing this special evening with them and for all the gifts they received.

RUSSELL & BERTHA BAZIAN — Celebrate their Golden Anniversary.

WITH LOVE TO MOM AND DAD — Tracy, Cindy and Adrian Ewasiuk reminisced about their happy family life at their parents' anniversary celebration.

Ewasiuks celebrate 25 years

A large group of family and friends gathered Saturday evening, September 13, at the Elk Point Elks Hall to honor Lillian and George Ewasiuk on their 25th wedding anniversary.

The story of events leading up to their wedding day, and continuing through the subsequent years, was told in a hilarious poem and skit narrated by Bernice Poleschuk, with the able assistance of Beverley and Brian Bepalko. A film of the wedding was shown, to the delight of all, especially the original wedding party, who joined in the celebration.

Several special guests were in attendance. John Zenko presented a plaque on behalf of the County of St. Paul, while MLA John Drobot brought greetings and a scroll from the Provincial government. Mayor Ed Buck extended best wishes on behalf of the Town of Elk Point. Greetings were also received from Prime Minister Brian Mulroney MP Don Mazankowski, Leader of the Opposition John Turner, Premier Don Getty and absent bridal party member Jeannette Dowling.

The Ewasiuk's three children, Adrian, Cindy and Tracy, presented good wishes and many reminiscences along with their gift. Bernice Poleschuk presented the community gift of a set of silver, plus a suitcase full of "Second Honeymoon Necessities", accompanied by instructions for each item's use.

Father Royer of Northern Valley Church gave a very humorous address which was followed by the cutting of the anniversary cake.

A display of Ukrainian dancing by Cathy Buck, Sheldon Porcina and Dwayne Vogel set the mood for the rest of the evening, which featured dancing to some excellent music.

HAPPY COUPLE — Lillian and George Ewasiuk look forward to many more years of happy married life as they cut their 25th Anniversary Cake.

Good News For Alberta Small Business!

Introducing: The Alberta Small Business Term Assistance Plan.

The Government of Alberta has launched a 750 million dollar program which will significantly benefit Alberta small businesses.

The program offers new and existing eligible businesses a low, fixed interest rate of 9% to purchase capital assets or refinance existing term debt. A portion (maximum 35%) of existing operating loans and new inventory purchases may also be transferred to term debt, up to a combined maximum of $50,000.

If your firm employs not more than 100 people with sales of $5 million or less, mainly from active business sources — you may qualify.

Under the plan, it may be possible for you to borrow up to $150,000 for a period of 3 to 10 years. Loans must be used to generate active business income. The Province of Alberta will share the risk of loans made under the program through guarantee agreements with lenders. Repayment ability, as well as a long-term viability of your business, must be demonstrated.

The program commences on September 15th. Application forms may be obtained from participating Chartered Banks, Treasury Branches and Credit Unions.

Thank You

We would like to thank everyone who attend our 25th Wedding Anniversary Celebration. We hope everyone had a great time!!

We give special thanks to the following people who helped in making this celebration such a success: Our children, Adrian, Cindy & Tracy, for all the work they did, Bernice, our M.C., for the wonderful job she did, the cooks, Jean & Julia and everyone else who helped in preparing the food. Also Archie, Lorraine, Lisa and Adam and everyone who served drinks throughout the evening. Special thanks to Ed for taking the video and Don for taking pictures, also the speakers: John Zenko, John Drobot and Ed Buck. Many thanks to the Orchestra "The Swing Tones", for their fine music to Millie for the live flowers and Ruby for the corsages. Our regrets, if our children missed out on inviting anyone.

Ringette - a winter sport

I'd like to introduce our assistant coach, manager, trainer, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Connie Capjack. She is the backbone of the team and one of our best supporters.

It occurred to me over the past week that some girls might be a little apprehensive because of the hockey skate requirement. Please don't worry, two weeks on the ice and you'll be right in there with the rest. RULES OF THE GAME: the ice surface is divided into three zones, your defensive zone is from the blue line into your goalie, the center zone is between the two blue lines, and the offensive zone is from the opposite blue line into their goalie. The red line doesn't exist.

The center carries a WHITE stick, the wingers carry a BLUE stick, and the defensive players carry RED sticks. More on the game next week.

New program launched

Farm families who have no choice but to give up farming because of financial difficulties can look for help from the new $46.6 million Canadian Rural Transition Program (CRTP).

The CRTP will provide eligible farm families with financial assistance, job counselling and training. Being self-employed, farmers have generally not been eligible for this type of federal assistance in the past.

In announcing the details of this assistance program, Agriculture Minister John Wise and Employment and Immigration Minister Benoit Bouchard said that they wanted to take concrete action by helping all those who have to leave the farm and take up another way of life.

Noting that farming is a way of life as well as a business, the two Ministers pointed out that the CRTP has been designed to smooth the way for necessary change.

"Many Canadian farmers face serious financial problems. The federal government will continue to support them through various programs. However, some farmers won't be able to continue farming even with that help. Some have already had to give up farming; others will be forced to do so," Mr. Wise said.

Mr. Bouchard indicated that the new measures "will make this transition less difficult for farm families who must leave the farm, by improving their chances of finding other employment or starting a new business."

The program offers assistance in several ways. It provides financial support during the period of transition to help defray living expenses. It also offers training, job search and relocation assistance, where necessary. An initial grant is possible for those wanting to start a new non-farming business. Professional and personal counselling is also available. Finally, the program can provide an incentive to employers to hire eligible family members who have difficulty finding work.

Farmers who have stopped farming between February 26 and September 1, 1986, must apply before March 1, 1987. Those who leave farming after September 1, 1986, must apply within six months of doing so, or they may apply up to three months before they cease farming.

The Ministers added that the program was developed by Agriculture Canada and Employment and Immigration Canada after consultation with provincial governments and farm organizations. Canada Employment Centres are responsible for administering the program.

Further information on the program and application forms are available from Canada Employment Centres, Canadian Farm Labour Pools, Farm Credit Corporation offices and Agriculture Canada's Agriculture Development offices. CRTP brochures will also be available by the end of September from most provincial agriculture offices, rural post offices, many farm organizations and rural branches of banks and credit unions.

Clandonald News

By Shirley Osinchuk
Clandonald Correspondent

Did you ever notice ... that the number of people who are watching you is directly proportional to the stupidity of your actions?

Congratulations to Sherry and John Ganton who were married in Clandonald on Sunday, Aug. 31.

The childrens' soccer club is still meeting on Thursdays with their coach Stan Stafford.

The Elk Point and District Light Horse Association's first Poker Rally was a success. About sixty-five people took part.

On a windy, but pleasant Sun., Aug. 24, the riders set out for a ten mile trail ride through pastureland, overlooking the river. After a steak barbecue, trophies were presented. Lee Lavoie from Stoney Lake won first place; Gary Proski from St. Paul, second; and Sheldon Brunner of Edmonton, third. Janet Thompson from Myrnam received the "Best Dressed" trophy. Mike Metrunc from Myrnam was the oldest rider. The youngest rider was Lee Lavoie from Stoney Lake. The trophy for "All Around Rider" went to Jeff Dorey of Clandonald, and Kendall Zarowny received the "Hard Luck" trophy.

The club wishes to thank these businesses for their donations which greatly helped to make the Poker Rally a success: Franklin's Septic Services, Empress Family Restaurant, Video Point, Lakeland Tire, Bumper to Bumper, Tony Bochon Ezzo, Elk Point Insurance, Sunshine Bus Lines, Work Wearhouse, Tags Food Store, Capitol Drugs, Phil's Hardware, East End Auto Supply, E-Can Oilfield Supply, D & R Pilings, and Elk Point Packers.

Thanks also to everyone who took part.

My thanks to Myrna Golden for names and details of the Poker Rally.

Doctors tell you that if you eat slowly, you will eat less. That is particularly true if you belong to a large family.

Sept. 15, 1986.....

The leaves are taking on their fall colours, and the Christmas catalogue has arrived. The season really is changing.

School enrolment in Clandonald is 97 this year. Nine new Grade 1 students have started school. Kindergarten will start on Tues., Sept. 16 and fifteen more students are expected.

Last June, the Grade 3 students wrote a Provincial Achievement Test in Mathematics. The Grade 6 students wrote a Science Test and the Grade nines wrote a Language Arts Test. In all three grades, the marks of our students were within or above the provincial average. That is an indication of the high quality of teaching in our school.

The Graduation exercises and celebrations for J.R. Robson High

FORMER DEWBERRY STUDENT — Marvin Holmen was the valedictorian at the JR Robson High School graduation. He also won several awards.

School were held in Vermilion on Saturday, Sept. 13. Ivan Bardoel, Clayton Dyjur, Caroline Etherington, Gordon Harasiuk, Shawn Nelson, David Podhaniuk and Ronald Thordson are all former Clandonald students, having graduated from Grade 9 in Clandonald School. Christine Davidson went to school here for some of her elementary grades. Audra Farrell and Brian McPhee are both from the Clandonald and Allendale area. We congratulate all the graduates.

The student with the highest academic standing was the Valedictorian. The student with this honor was Marvin Holmen, who went to school in Dewberry until Grade 6. Marvin won awards for the highest standing in Math 30, Chemistry 30, Social Studies 30, Physics 30, General Proficiency, an A.T.A. Scholarship, County of Vermilion River Honor Pin and an Alexander Rutherford Scholarship.

Audra Farrell earned an Alexander Rutherford Scholarship for outstanding academic achievement and a County Honor Pin.

Caroline Etherington won a Lakeland College Tuition Assistance

Scholarship and the Heckbert Agencies award for highest standing in English 33.

Ronald Thordson earned an Alexander Rutherford Scholarship, County Honor Pin, Citizenship Award from the O.O.R.P. and was the Grads' Representative, passing on the colours to this year's Grade 12 class.

Wayne Ward, whose mother teaches in Clandonald, won an Alexander Rutherford Scholarship, the English 30 award and the Lynn Misick Memorial Scholarship.

Well done!

Summer reading program is over

It's hard to believe that the summer is over and it's time to go back to school. It seems like only yesterday that I was looking into grinning faces and wondering "Who are these kids?" Now that I know them and they know me, I wonder ... why aren't they grinning anymore?!! Actually, I think we all had a great time and I'm going to miss them.

Participants in the Elementary Program were Ryan Gusnowski, Kris Gusnowski, Cathy Demchuk, Darren Watson, Kara Serniak, Christa Lypka, Jeff Lypka, Kim Young, Crystal Young, Chris Melnyk and Josh Stevens-Pearson. With a little help from me, these kids wrote two books that are terrific. One of them is a choose-your-own-adventure. Come down to the library and check them out.

In the pre-school program there were Julie Whiffen-Peters, Mac Gusnowski, Kris Gusnowski, Naomi Lentz, Thomas Lentz, Gregory Demchuk, Amanda Johnson, Paul Erickson, Douglas Erickson, Jessie Kleeberger, Vickie Kleeberger, Adam Kleeberger, Melanie Johnson, Matt Huffman, Jena Bassett, Jordan Bassett, Graham Grabowski, Colin Grabowski, Stephen Baylis, Jeff LeDrew, Jason LeDrew and Jason Cabaj. I had a lot of fun reading and doing crafts with the pre-schoolers and I hope that they had just as much fun.

The end of the summer parties were great! We had crackers and cheese, rice crispie squares and juice to drink. I talked about nutrition all summer so I felt that our party should have some nutritious foods. We also played games, had a treasure hunt and used the park facilities.

Of course, I have to add a special thanks for those people who helped me. The pre-school mothers were a blessing to have in the program room. Thank you for your ideas, help and advice. I would also like to thank the library staff and board for their encouragement and praise. Also a thanks to a former library worker, Diane Fraess. Thanks for teaching me some of the tricks of the trade, and volunteering to help when I needed it. One more thank you to my great-grandma Bowtell (who is turning 96 this year) for judging the coloring contest.

Well, another summer is gone but I don't think I could have spent it enjoying myself better. Everyone was great to be with and I now know that education, especially elementary, is one of the more rewarding and pleasurable professions there is!

Thanks.

Out our way

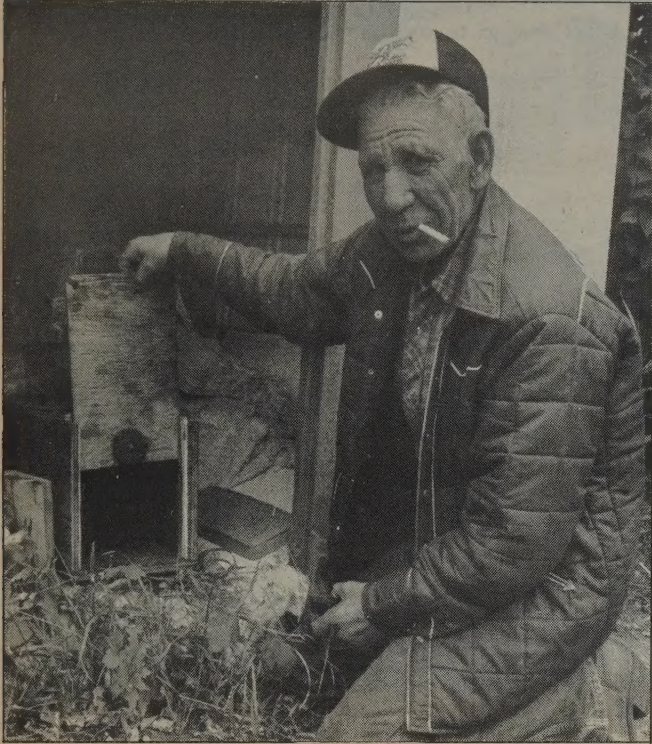

By Mildred Dunham

Ferguson Flats Correspondent

Congratulations to Debbie Kummetz and Lee Babcock who were married on Sept. 6th. Recent visitors to Primrose were Steve and Flo Lemecka and daughter, Judy; also Larry Lemecka. Being disabled didn't stop Larry from wheeling his wheelchair down to the beaver dam in the pasture where he used to hunt twenty years ago.

Sat. 13th, a group of "horse people" met at the home of Ross and Georgina Morris at Lindbergh. They were people who had taken part in the wagon trip or were involved with it. They had a movie on the wagon trip from Frog Lake to Fort Pitt the year before. Everyone dug out their pictures of this year's ride and compared snaps and memories. After a lovely lunch everyone put in their orders for whatever pictures they wanted. Plans were already flying around as to horses and wagons for "next year". It's surprising to find so many people still wanting to keep the spirit of the old west alive.

SKUNKS BEWARE! — Ross Maas is doing his best to rid Elk Point of these odiferous omnivores by setting traps such as this in the western areas of Elk Point. To date, at least 15 of the pesky animals have been removed from the scene.

PAUSE FOR REFLECTION — Larry Lemecka made a nostalgic visit to his old hunting grounds in the Primrose area recently.

From the Sergeant's Desk

By J.T.J. Fell, Sgt.

I have just received the 1985 Alberta Traffic Collision statistics for the Elk Point Detachment area and I have summarized them for your information.

October again ranked highest in number of collision events at a total of 29. July was second with 26 and November at 23. December wasn't great at 21. First snowfall strikes again.

There were two fatal, 26 injury and 164 property damage collisions. If we assigned an average of $2,000.00 damage to each vehicle and considered an average of one and a half vehicles per accident (because some collisions involve only one vehicle), the amount of money spent in property damage alone would be $256,000.00. This would be a very low estimate. No wonder insurance premiums are going up.

Rural roads claimed 83 collision events or 43%, Elk Point claimed 39 events or 20%, primary highway, i.e. #41 and #28 claimed 33 events or 17% and secondary highways, i.e. #897, 893, 646 and 640 claimed 37 events or 19%.

Collision events occurred at a rate of 43 between midnight and noon; 47 between noon and 4:00 p.m. and 65 between 4:00 p.m. and midnight.

The day of the week is as follows: Thursday at 32, Friday and Tuesday at 30 each, Monday at 26, Saturday and Wednesday at 25 each and Sunday at 23.

Therefore, according to the statistics, your greatest risk is in October on a rural road between 4:00 p.m. and midnight on a Thursday. Your least risk would be in April on Highway #41 or Highway #28 between midnight and noon on a Sunday. Unfortunately, there are no guarantees???

SO LIGHTS ON AND SEAT BELTS DONE UP AND HAVE A SAFE WEEK.

Ellen Walker celebrates 80 years

I would like to thank my family and show my appreciation for the lovely "Family Get-Together" party they put on to honor me on my 80th birthday. The afternoon of August 31st, we gathered at the Dewberry Sports Ground, where 2 games of softball were played. Had fun watching the young great-grandchildren playing and enjoying themselves. Then it was time for the grandchildren and their spouses to choose sides and have a challenge game. Phyllis Bates and Janet Mulgrew pitched; a fine lively game.

The Banquet Room of the Dewberry Curling Club all beautifully decorated was the place for the delicious hot turkey dinner. There were 70 present, 5 being unable to attend; the youngest 2 month old Craig Mathison. Phyllis Bates asked the Blessing. Pat Mulgrew was M.C. and did a fine job.

A dusk-till-dawn lighting unit was the gift from the family. A beautiful full length mirror, and lovely Bonbon dish and an original "Mother Finds A Way" sculpture ornament all beautifully engraved were the gifts from grandchildren and families. There was a short program, one item being Phyllis relating humorously about her mother's early life, with several of the great-grandchildren acting out such things as washing clothes with a vacuum plunger, churning butter and cleaning lamp glasses and all the while jitterbugging to the background music of the record player. Roxanne Good gave a reading "When God Created Mothers". Brad Romanchuk and Aaron Bates acted and sang to the Ghost Busters tape.

After much visiting the birthday cake was cut which we enjoyed along with drinks.

Everyday I thank God for my wonderful family which consists of my daughters Joyce and Phyllis, sons Bobby and Earl, 19 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren. I love everyone of them.

To all who came and made this such a happy occasion, a special thank you.

On September 8th, the date of my birthday, Joyce and Phyllis took my sister and I to Vermilion where they got my sister Hazel to join us and went to "Kathy's Kitchen" and had another big dinner, complete with wine and birthday cake.

Thank you girls, you made my birthday very special.

NADC takes position on hail and crop insurance

Bob Elliott, MLA, Chairman of the Northern Alberta Development Council, has released a Council position paper on Hail and Crop Insurance as it affects northern farmers.

In his formal presentation to the Hail and Crop Insurance Hearings, held in Peace River on September 9, 1986, Dr. Elliott said: "In general, northern farmers are not completely satisfied with the existing hail and crop insurance program."

He went on to point out that, even so, Alberta's program compares well with those in other provinces and is, in fact, quite similar.

He said that 157 farmers in northern Alberta had been surveyed for the NADC by Deloitte, Haskins and Sells. Most farmers do invest in hail and crop insurance but more than 63% who had made a claim felt compensation was unfair. Dr. Elliott said: "Farmers indicated to the NADC that their losses exceeded their insurance payouts substantially."

Dr. Elliott said it is clear that northern producers want to earn their living from the land and that they view crop insurance as an input expense whose sole purpose is to help them recover production expenses. "They want a system in place to guarantee their input costs," he said.

To help achieve this, Dr. Elliott listed 10 recommendations of the NADC:

1. Individual coverage should be made more attractive for producers.
2. Coverage should be based on input costs, allowing more flexibility for producers to insure to the level they wish with producer and farm capabilities taken into consideration.
3. The "good experience" rating system should be revised to provide more reward to those producers with a good record of performance. Acts of God in a single year should not eliminate several years of good experience at a rate faster than 25% per year.

4. Spot-loss coverage should be allowed under the Crop Insurance Plan.

5. The plowdown policy should be reviewed to allow plowdown if the crop is not economical to harvest between July 1 and August 1. If the crop is determined to be a failure, an earlier plowdown should result in summerfallow classification.

6. A payment for snowed-under crops should be made within the calendar year. Farmers should be allowed an advance on the balance of the snowed-under crop.

7. A review of insurance rates should be conducted.

8. A complete revision of program dates by crop should be considered, recognizing possible regional variations.

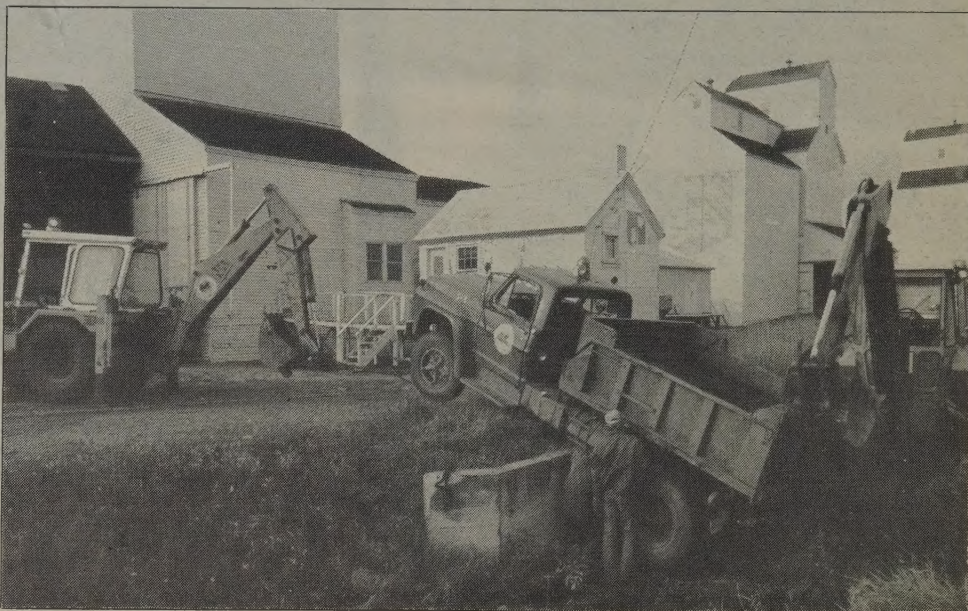

9. If the All Risk program is to be continued in the north, the area should be divided into smaller regions with recognition given to climatic variations and soil productivity.

10. More information should be supplied to producers.

Dr. Elliott went on to say that although the Council understands that time is required in order to make revisions and that further research is needed, the NADC urges the provincial government to proceed without undue delay in making changes to correct disadvantages now affecting northern farmers.

The 10-member Northern Alberta Development Council reports directly to the Provincial Legislature and serves as a forum to which northern residents can present their points of view. The NADC helps plan and promote economic and social development in northern Alberta.

TOWN TEETER TOTTER — This Town of Elk Point truck backed a little too far toward the drainage ditch one morning last week and ended up pointing skyward. By the time this reporter arrived, however, it was just teetering precariously on the cement retaining wall at the side of the ditch.

Report from the Alberta Legislature

By John Drobot, MLA

St. Paul

Larry Shaben, the Minister of Economic Development and Trade, has announced that on September 15, 1986, the Alberta Government will start up the Small Business Term Assistance Plan to give the province's small businesses more stability in lending institution interest rates. The government recognizes the importance of small business to the economic vitality and growth of this province.

Fluctuating interest rates coupled with an uncertain economic climate has made it difficult for our small businesses to make long term financial and economic plans. By creating a $750 million pool of money we are offering businesses an opportunity to stabilize their financial position and give them an environment to begin long term planning.

Under this program up to $150,000, of which $50,000 may be for operating loans, may be borrowed for up to a ten year period (with a minimum of three years). On September 15, applications will become available through the various lending institutions in the province participating in the program. These include: branches of Canadian chartered banks, Alberta Treasury Branches, and Alberta credit unions.

The lending institutions will be responsible for processing and approving loan applications. The Small Business Term Assistance Plan office will be responsible for verifying applicants' eligibility. Once the application has reached final approval, a small business will receive the loan agreed upon with the lender at nine per cent. Some of the Eligibility requirements of the new program are:

- any type of profit seeking business is eligible (proprietorship, partnership, cooperative, corporation).
- at least 50 per cent of revenue is active business income.
- must have not more than 100 employees.
- annual gross revenues must be less than $5 million, or gross profit less than $1 million.

Small businesses account for 97 per cent of all businesses in the province and for over 70 per cent of new employment creation. Additionally small businesses are responsible for 80 per cent of Alberta's technological innovations and represent over 30 per cent of the Gross Provincial Product. It is because of the importance of the role small business plays in the province that this program has been introduced.

If you require more information on this program or application forms, contact any branch of a participating bank, credit union or Alberta Treasury Branch. Questions on eligibility can be answered at the Alberta Small Business Term Assistance Plan office. They can be reached toll free at 1-800-232-9457.

Light Horse Club report

By Charlene Baker

Saturday, Sept. 6th and Sunday, Sept. 7th, the Light Horse Club held an overnight trail ride. We left Lionel and Barb Lavoie's home Saturday afternoon and rode across country to the Stoney Lake campsite where we spent the night. Not quite under the stars, as we brought the comforts of home in our trailers. Sunday morning we played games on horseback in the Stoney Lake Arena and then we headed back across country to our starting point. The ride was great fun and we got to enjoy some beautiful scenery up in the hills overlooking the river. We'd like to extend a thank you to all who gave us access across their land, and to the Stoney Lake Rodeo Association for permission to use their grounds. This is our first year as an active club and so far we have been very busy with various family trail rides during the spring and summer, plus our Poker Rally in August. Next year we hope to do even more trail riding and family events. Anyone is welcome to join! Our next meeting is Tuesday, October 7th at 7:30 at the Elk Point Old Courthouse.

September is enrollment time for Scouts, Cubs, Beavers in Elk Point area

By Marian Pilisko

Secretary, Boys Scouts Ass'n.

Come on and join us - 1st Elk Point Beavers, Cubs and Scouts.

The aim of Boy Scouts of Canada is to provide the opportunity for boys between ages of 5 to 14 years to develop socially, physically, mentally and spiritually. As the District Commissioner, Roxanne Ringuette Harvey states in the St. Paul Journal ... "It's an all around program. We try to provide fun opportunities for the kids to develop good citizenship, good skills with emphasis on the outdoors."

Road contract awarded

A $500,000 grading contract for Secondary Road 640 in the Heinsburg area has been awarded to Manx Construction Ltd. of Stettler, the Minister of Transportation and Utilities Al "Boomer" Adair announced recently.

Hit and run

Several weeks ago, an "Unsolved Hit and Run Accident" that occurred in the early morning of April 20, 1986 causing $2600.00 damage was reported through the newspaper.

We are very pleased to advise that the culprit has been apprehended and charged with "Driving without due care and attention" and "Failing to comply with the duties of a driver after an accident".

On the 26th of August, 1986 an Elk Point man plead "guilty" to both charges and received fines totalling $575.00 or 50 days in jail. The fines were paid.

Thank you for your assistance.

struction Ltd. of Stettler, the Minister of Transportation and Utilities Al "Boomer" Adair announced recently.

This project involves reconstruction (grading only) of 11 kilometres of selective sections of Secondary Road 640 from the junction of Highway 41 east. It is scheduled for completion this fall.

"This project is part of a program to upgrade all of Secondary Road 640 and will prepare this section for eventual surfacing," said Mr. Adair. "Considerable credit should go to Lloydminster MLA Doug Cherry for emphasizing how important this project is to the County of Two Hills."

The tender call attracted six bids, the three lowest being:

Manx Construction Ltd., Stettler - $510,719
Don Pearson Construction Ltd., Hythe - $530,647
North American Road Ltd., Edmonton - $690,474
